

STUDENT MEMBERSHIP

We hope this membership will lead to a mutually beneficial relationship, where students gain resources to help them start/advance their careers and HERO members meet potential employees who will help their organization advance their health and well-being practices.

Apply now

<https://bit.ly/32fTtoQ>

12+ credits
or graduate program taking 6+ credits

WHO

Students currently enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student at a College/University.

Proof of enrollment - University Email Address and Advisor contact information

$50/year
per student (year starts at time
of application and payment)

PRICE

$50/year per student

$25/year per student at a HERO member
University/College

BENEFITS

Access to the HERO Resource Center, an online library of presentations, white papers and research presented at HERO Forums and Think Tank meetings, as well as in peer-reviewed journals

Subscription to HERO monthly e-newsletter.

Networking opportunities with the nation's health and well-being experts

Student focused HERO webinars, led by industry professionals

Opportunity to apply for the student representative position on each HERO study committee.

Opportunity to apply to intern at the annual HERO Forum.

Eligible for student research award – winners will be invited to present their research at a HERO-sponsored event. Registration free of charge! Research award winners will also be featured in the American Journal of Health Promotion.

- Receive a preview of all jobs posted to the HERO job board before publicly posted.
- Résumé builder!